

DEDICATION

ALIFFF 2021 is dedicated to the memory of Christopher R. Smith.

AWARDS

We'll be giving out five awards during the Awards Ceremony on Sunday.

My panel of judges have chosen the winners of three: Best Horror Short, Best Sci-Fi Short and Best Other Short, using what criteria they deem appropriate.

I'm giving out my Festival Director's Award to a film I feel is especially worthy.

That leaves Best Feature, which is an audience favourite award and so where YOU come in. After each feature, we'll hand out a voting slip with numbers at the corners. Please fold over ONE corner only to vote and hand back the slip or place it in the black box at the back. The film with the highest average will take home the award! 4 is the best and 1 is the worst.

THANKS

While this is my film festival, it isn't mine alone. I'd like to thank the other wonderful people who helped me to bring it to life, always starting with my long suffering better half, Dee Astell, for taking this fantastic journey with me and working through it. She runs front of house.

Thanks to all the filmmakers who submitted this time out, for trusting me with their cinematic babies, in some instances to introduce them to the world.

Thanks to my relentless panel of judges, who this year were Sarah-Anne & Matthew Stubbs, Christopher Bradley and Noah Richman.

Thanks to my artists: Jason Drotman of Steamheart Design (steamheart.com), who designs my graphics, and Tom Deadstuff of Den of Odd (tomdeadstuff.com), who once again designed and created the utterly unique awards.

Thanks to Jeremiah Wilkerson, who handles our projection and sound, Michael Flanders, for documenting the event on video and MC'ing, and my trusted staff, Ivy Flanders and Kira Snyder.

Thanks to Will Snider at Phoenix Center for the Arts for all his help.

Extra special thanks to the 2 Gay Geeks (tggeeks.com) for everything they do and all those who interviewed me or covered the event for press.

Thanks to all submitting filmmakers, selected or not. And thanks to you, the audience, for paying good money to see what made it into the show!

APOCALYPSE LATER EMPIRE

The latest book from Apocalypse Later Press is The Awesomely Awful '80s, Part 2 by Hal C. F. Astell.

The Apocalypse Later Roadshow will return for event #43 at Wild Wild West Steampunk Convention 10 in Tuscon, AZ in March 2022.

ALIFFF 2022, the sixth annual Apocalypse Later International Fantastic Film Festival, is set for October 8-10, 2022 (Saturday to holiday Monday). Submissions will go live in FilmFreeway by November 2021. Early bird rate until New Year.

APOCALYPSE LATER

INTERNATIONAL FANTASTIC FILM FESTIVAL

Welcome to ALIFFF 2021, the fifth annual Apocalypse Later International Fantastic Film Festival! Phoenix Center for the Arts | October 8-10, 2021

We're proud to be an independent genre film festival, bringing the very best in features and short films to new eyeballs, all selected from submissions and sourced from across the fantastic genres and across the globe.
